MESSAGE

It is a pleasure to learn that grappling federation of India is organizing the 2nd Indian Open, an international grappling championship - 2018 and publishing its annual magazine to mark the occasion.

Physical and mental fitness are the most important attributes for every individual, particularly for sportspersons. Sports also teach and inculcate the virtues of discipline, concentration, setting and achieving goals, team spirit and handling success and failure with equanimity.

Grappling as a sport has been practiced in India for centuries and was known in ancient India as 'Malla Yuddha'. Traditional sports and games are structured in such a manner that along with physical ability, they enhance our logical thinking, concentration, alertness and energy levels. It is crucial that today schools, neighborhoods and youth congregations come forward and promote these games. Through crowd sourcing we can create a very large archive of our traditional games.

Best wishes for success of 2nd Indian open grappling Championship-2018.

संदेश

मुझे यह जानकर प्रसन्नता हुई कि भारतीय ग्रेपलिंग संघ अपनी वार्षिक हिन्दी नियम-पुस्तिका का प्रकाशन कर रहा है।

कुश्ती खेल ही नहीं बल्कि आत्म रक्षा का साधन भी है। मल्ल-युद्ध अर्थात् कुश्ती का जिक्र महाभारत और रामायण जैसे पौराणिक ग्रंथों में भी मिलता है। भारतीय ग्रेपलिंग संघ द्वारा ग्रामीण अंचन से जुड़े कुश्ती के खेल को प्रोत्साहित करने और अधिक से अधिक लोगों को इसके प्रति आकर्षित करने के लिए किए जा रहे प्रयास सराहनीय हैं।

आशा है कि हिन्दी भाषा में प्रकाशित की जा रही नियम-पुस्तिका में कुश्ती के अंतर्राष्ट्रीय नियमों पर प्रकाश डाला जाएगा, जिससे खिलाड़ी, प्रशिक्षक और रेफरी सभी लाभान्वित होंगे और प्रदेश के पहलवान इन नियमों का अनुपालन करके राष्ट्रीय एवं अंतर्राष्ट्रीय प्रतियोगिताओं में बड़े पैमाने पर पुरस्कार प्राप्त करने में सफल होंगे।

मैं नियम-पुस्तिका के सफल प्रकाशन के लिए अपनी शुभकामनाएँ प्रेषित करता हूँ।

History of Modern Grappling Sports

Grappling refers to techniques, maneuvers, and counters applied to an opponent in order to gain a physical advantage, such as improving relative position, escaping, submitting, or injury to the opponent. Grappling is a general term that covers techniques used in many disciplines, styles and martial arts that are practiced both as combat sports and for self-defense. Grappling most commonly does not include striking or the use of weapons. However, some fighting styles or martial arts known especially for their grappling techniques teach tactics that include strikes and weapons either alongside grappling or combined with it.

The degree to which Grappling is utilized in different fighting systems varies. Some systems, such as amateur Wrestling, Pehlwani, Pehlwani submission wrestling, Judo, Sumo, Kalaripayattu and Brazilian jiu-jitsu are exclusively Grappling arts and do not allow striking. Many combat sports, such as shooto and mixed martial arts competitions use Grappling while retaining striking as part of the sport.

TYPES OF GRAPPLING

GRAPPLING- GI & NO-GI GRAPPLING

There are many different regional styles of Grappling around the world that are practiced within a limited geographic area or country. Several Grappling styles like Sport Judo, Shoot wrestling, Catch Wrestling, Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, Sport Sambo and several types of Wrestling including freestyle and Greco-Roman have gained global popularity. Judo, Freestyle Wrestling, and Greco-Roman Wrestling are Olympic Sports while Grappling, Brazilian Jiu-jitsu and Sambo have their own World Championship Competitions. Other known Grappling-oriented systems are Shuai Jiao, Malla-Yuddha and Aikido.

In these arts, the object is either to take down and pin the opponent, or to catch the adversary in a specialized chokehold or joint lock which forces him to submit and admit defeat or be rendered helpless (unconscious or broken limbs). There are two forms of dress for Grappling that dictate pace and style of action: with a jacket, such as a Gi or Kurtka, and without (No-Gi). The jacket, or "Gi", form most often utilizes grips on the cloth to control the opponent's body, while the "No-Gi" form emphasizes body control of the torso and head using only the natural holds provided by the body. Grappling techniques are also used in mixed martial arts along with striking techniques. Strikes can be used to set up Grappling techniques and vice versa.

UNITED WORLD WRESTLING-UWW

United World Wrestling (UWW) is the international governing body for the sport of Wrestling & Grappling. It presides over international competitions for various forms of Wrestling, including Grappling for Men and women. The flagship Grappling's event of UWW is the Grappling World Championships.

Grappling have their individual World Championship, Asian, European, South Asian Championships around the world. Grappling also included in World Combat Games and coming in next Asian Games-2018.

Grappling & Wrestling, sports have a long and complicated history, stretching into prehistoric times. Many traditional forms survive, grouped under the term folk wrestling. More formal systems have been codified in various forms of martial arts worldwide, where Grappling techniques form a significant subset of unarmed fighting (complemented by striking techniques).

In India, United World Wrestling-UWW has given reorganization to Grappling Federation of India as a national governing body for Grappling Sports. Grappling Federation of India is officially registered under Society Act 2012/1860 under the government. Grappling Federation of India is organising National Championship for School Boys/ Girls, Cadets, Juniors, Seniors & Veterans from 2005.
